

Thomas Monk currently operates Conceptual Design & Construction Company located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He embarked on this entrepreneurial journey during the COVID-19 pandemic in July 2020. Thomas has provided construction documents and design/build services for residential and commercial projects throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, and New York. Although Thomas has served the construction community for over 30 years, he has found time to dedicate much of his life in serving His Lord Jesus Christ in the Adventist Youth Ministry Department in the Allegheny East Conference.

Thomas is extremely passionate about helping lead young people into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. He states..., "the Pathfinder/Adventurer and Youth Sabbath School ministries are the best tools within the Adventist church that provides the best opportunity for our young folk to learn of Jesus Christ at their earliest stages in life." Thomas is a member of the Ebenezer Seventh-day Adventist church in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He has served his congregation as well as, the Delaware Valley Area Federation for over 35 years serving in the following departments:

- Religious Liberties Director 1993-1998
- Youth Sabbath School Leader 1991-1998
- Adventist Youth Society Leader 2010-2014
- Ebenezer Warriors Pathfinder Director 1997-2011, 2012-2014
- Audio/Visual Director 2003-2013
- Adventist Youth Basketball Coach 1996-2005

Thomas has served the Allegheny East Conference in the following areas:

- Allegheny East Conference Pathfinder Association Assistant Treasurer 1998-2011
- Delaware Valley Adventist Youth Federation Athletic Director 2005-2008
- Delaware Valley Pathfinder Area Coordinator 2008-2011
- Allegheny East Conference Pathfinder Association Staff Training Team 2004-present

Thomas serves on the Allegheny East Conference Executive Committee and is currently serving out his second quinquennial on this committee. Thomas has supported the International Camporee since Camp Hale in 1985.
