

Shavaughn Barnes is also known as Shevie pronounced Chevy. She has been a lover of the Lord all her life. She was born with cerebral palsy and has always had a heart to make sure Pathfinders and Adventurers has a space for those with disabilities. She became a Master Guide in 2018. She is currently the Adventurers Director at Patmos Chapel. She is also the advisor of The Florida Youth Council, and each day does what she can to make sure people with disabilities have access to the world.